

Where as, _____ (Artist's name) is an individual residing at _____, is the designer and author of sketches of a trolley hereby attached to this document which has been submitted to the Town of Lloyd Historical Preservation Society (TOLHPS) on the date below; and

Whereas, the Artist understands and acknowledges that as part of the application process it is intended that TOLHPS, 12 Church Street, Highland, NY, owns the entire right, title and interest in the finished art piece.

AGREEMENT

The Artist understands and acknowledges that upon the Artist's receipt of notification that his/her design has been selected and approved, he/she shall apply their Design to the Artist's Guidelines provided by the TOLHPS thereby creating a "Finished Art Piece" ready for outdoor display during the summer of 2018. (See timeline attached)

The Artist understands and acknowledges that the TOLHPS shall be the sole and exclusive owner of the art piece for exhibition as described in detail in the Call for Artist to TOLHPS and that in such case the TOLHPS will provide $50 for costs of materials used in the construction of the design chosen for exhibition. The Artist will also receive 25% of the gross sale price paid for his/her Design at the final TOLHPS Trolley event and auction.

The Artist understands and agrees that due to the nature of public and outdoor display of the finished Design, the piece may not survive intact and holds TOLHPS harmless in such an event.

_____ Date

_____ Artist's name

_____ Charles Glasner, President TOLHPS

 If the design you execute contains a logo or logotype for a business, please understand the trolley value may be reduced at auction. However, in some instances, it might actually increase the desirability of the trolley.